

Terelj Hotel has been independently voted among the '50 Best Luxury Adventure Holidays in the World', for 2012. The award was presented by AdventureTemples™, an exciting new luxury adventure travel service and online community, with members in 25+ countries.

Competition was fierce, with hundreds of destinations and thousands of hotels under consideration. To qualify, hotels have to offer a great range of activities, for body, mind and spirit, from a stunning luxury base – so even the most discerning guests will find excitement, inspiration and relaxation. After many rounds of voting and expert selection, winners from 36 countries were chosen, and will be immortalized in a prestigious new coffee-table photo-guidebook.
